

PROGRAMME FOR NHS SCOTLAND CONTINGENCY PLANNING EXERCISE

Aims: To assist NHS Scotland in preparation for multiple casualties in relation to attacks on the population.

Saturday 23 Jan 2016

Ser	Location	Time	Title	Speaker	Remarks
1	Oliver Barracks Classroom	0815-0825	Introduction and scene setting	Commanding Officer 205 Fd Hosp	All
2	Oliver Barracks Classroom	0825-0840	Background and objectives	Lt Col Loudon	All
3	Oliver Barracks Classroom	0845-0930	Medical lessons from terrorist small arms attacks	Lt Col Jansen/ Lt Col Loudon	All
4	Oliver Barracks Classroom	0930-0945	Coffee	All	QM
5	Oliver Barracks Classroom	0945-1015	Major Incident Planning/working with the NHS	MI planner/ Nomination/ Lt Col Sunderland	All
6	Oliver Barracks Classroom	1015-1100	Triage, documentation, casualty flow and data management	Lt Col Davies	All
7	Oliver Barracks Classroom	1100-1200	Syndicate activities	Faculty	Syndicates allocated
8	Oliver Barracks Classroom	1200-1245	Lunch	Buffet Meal provided	Quartermaster
9	Oliver Barracks Classroom	1245-1315	Syndicate back-brief and open forum focussed discussion	Faculty	Key considerations
10	Oliver Barracks Classroom	1315-1330	Table topping exercise scenario brief	Faculty	SSgt Burgess
11	Oliver Barracks Classroom	1335-1540	Table top exercise demonstration/walk through	All	SSgt Burgess/Clinical
12	Oliver Barracks Classroom	1540-1610	Debrief/lessons learned action points	All	Faculty to lead
13	Oliver Barracks Classroom	1610-1620	Closing remarks	Faculty/CO/CMO	End of day 1620

Notes:

Syndicate questions dependant on numbers but may include:

- Preparatory moves – Administration & planning, repositioning of critical medical stores.
- How well am I/is my hospital – prepared? Command/Control/Comms/Security considerations
- Managing patient flow – in/out including emergency discharges and secondary transfer.
- Resilience, reserve resupply and regrouping.
- The aftermath – downstream management of patients and providers/recovery and regrouping.

Address for the Contingency Planning Exercise:

Oliver Barracks
Dalkeith Road
Dundee
DD4 7DL

Numbers for access to Oliver Barracks:

Permanent Administrative staff Officer: 0131 310 4702

Admin Officer: 0131 310 4701

A Cameron
Maj

For CO